Dear Route 28 Tax District Commercial Property Stakeholder:

On behalf of the Loudoun County Board of Supervisors and our host, Orbital Sciences Corporation, you are cordially invited to attend a Breakfast Forum regarding economic development issues and opportunities within the Route 28 Corridor. The details of the forum are as follows:

"Route 28 – Shaping our Economic Future"

Special Guest Speaker: Dr. Stephen Appold
Kenan Institute of Private Enterprise

Date: Monday, April 13, 2009
Time: 7:30 – 8:00 a.m. - Registration & Continental Breakfast
8:00 – 10:00 a.m. - Forum
Place: Orbital Sciences Corporation
21839 Atlantic Boulevard, Building #1

The Breakfast Forum will be an opportunity for commercial property owners in the Route 28 Highway Improvement Tax District to engage in a dialogue with the Board of Supervisors regarding economic development issues within the Route 28 corridor. Following the forum, a summary of stakeholder issues and ideas raised at the forum and possible next steps will be prepared for the Board of Supervisors.

Dr. Stephen Appold, our guest speaker for the Forum, is a Senior Research Associate for the Kenan Institute of Private Enterprise at the University of North Carolina Business School. The Institute is a premier national and international consultant on airport and airport-driven economic development, including corridor development and the role that airports play in shaping economic competitiveness within a region.

Capacity is limited and RSVP is required. Please contact Jenny Grimmell at 703-777-0246 by Friday, April 3rd to reserve your space. A government-issued photo identification card will be required to enter the facility. Also, if you require any type of reasonable accommodation to participate in these meetings as a result of a physical, sensory, or mental disability, please contact the Loudoun County Planning Department. Three days' notice is requested. Thanks for your time and attention and we truly look forward to your participation in what will be a productive morning.

Sincerely,

Chairman Scott K. York
Chairman, Loudoun County Board of Supervisors
